LADY JACQUELINE SHECUT
SELDEN, NY

JACQUELINE SHECUT is from Queens, NY. She and Pastor Shecut have served in ministry for over twenty years. She is the proud mother of three children: Andre, Austin and Chloe and her daughter-in-law, Lindsey. Prior to becoming First Lady, she was the daughter of the late Rev. Jesse F. Parks, the founder of the ministry. "I have always enjoyed being involved at Mt. Moriah and with its people".

Jacqueline has always found joy in being active in ministry, from being an usher, singing in the choir to leading youth Sunday school. She is most known for her love of people and her warm hugs. "Being involved however I can, continues to be my joy and I do believe has prepared me to serve in this ministry".
